For Android, open Android Studio and go to File -> Open -> Other -> Choose "APK File" and point it to the file that you copied to your computer. Once you open the file you'll be able to use the features in Android Studio. There are plenty of apps that can help you create one of your own. Custom ROMS for Android(LatteDroid, BlackGo) 5. Appstore link : Internet Download Manager 2017 10.6.7 Choose a media source and select an output folder, then click "Save". Your video will start downloading at this point. Now we're going to make our video even better. We're going to go to "View" and then "Full Screen". On the top right hand side, if you can't see it, click and drag the "Settings" menu toward the center of the screen. From there, click "User Interface". Now click "Appearance" and from there find the "Window Decorations" tab. Click "Always show the title bar", then click "Apply". This will make the title bar stay on even when you close your program. There's an important thing to remember here. When you click on "Apply" this resets your screen settings to the way they were when you first started your video. Now we're going to go to "Controls". Once you're there, click on the little "Gear" icon on the right, then select "Full screen" from the drop-down menu. Now we're going to go to "Video". Click "File", then "Import" to open up your video. Click "No", then click "OK". Now click on "Reset". Now we're going to go to "Video". Now we're going to go to "Resize" and click "crop". Click "Crop Video" and move the sides until they're about two inches away from the sides of your screen, then click "OK". Now we're going to go back to "File". In the main menu, you can find
