A new walk that will bring you to the beach of the city of Brasília (better known as the Planalto Central). It will be the third iteration of this walk after two editions in the city of Brasília and Planalto Estadual. If you love history, are curious and do not like long walks (and I mean in distance), this walk in Planalto Central is for you. This one is for those interested in the history of the first capital of the Brazilian Republic. The history of the city is multifaceted and invites to experience it. Created by the initiative of the Secretariat of State for Culture and the Arts. The object is to make present the modern and cultural history of the federal district of Brasília, to document the building and construction work of the city, to know its evolution, to learn the story of its settlements and neighborhoods, to learn about the most important personalities, the first presidents of the republic, the place of culture and the arts, the places of beauty and pleasure. The aim is to create a narrative and communicate the history of Brasília, its buildings and construction work, its cultural history and its settlement, to know about the development of this federal district of Brasília in time. In this walk we will be visiting the following places: The Presidential Palace The National Art Gallery The National Museum The School of Law The National Library The Court of Justice The National Historical Museum The National Museum of the Cinema The National Theatre The School of Economics The National Museum of the History of Brazil The Museum of the Federal District The Alvaro Costa Park The National Museum of Agriculture The National Museum of the Earth The State Administration Building The Seminary of Santa Terezinha The National Museum of the Arts The National Museum of Arms The National Museum of Music The National Museum of Fine Arts The Army Museum The Museum of African Art The Ecological Museum The Museum of Modern Art The Museum of Modern Art (MAPA) The Municipal Cinema The Planetarium of the Museum of the Planalto Central The Cathedral of Santa Rita The Vila Madalena The New Mexico The National Library The Museum of the Rissoaia The National Academy of Medicine The Stadium of Brasília The National Stadium The Museum of Contemporary Art The Casa Dom Pedro II
