Can I pause a video playing in background? Playing audio and video together is a daily routine for me. I hear music and watch videos while I work. In my previous Windows 7 version, I could turn off the audio while watching videos. And I could just pause a video playing in background. Is there any way to pause a video playing in background? I use to pause videos playing in the background of my computer. I use to do it by pressing ALT, but it's really inconvenient. My biggest problem is that when I pause the video, sometimes it'll start again when I start playing it. I use to pause videos playing in the background of my computer. You cannot pause a video without some sort of audio. I know, but this isn't a Windows program, it's a Mac, right? And if there's no way to pause a video playing in background, is there any other way I can stop the audio/video?? You cannot pause a video without some sort of audio. I know, but this isn't a Windows program, it's a Mac, right? And if there's no way to pause a video playing in background, is there any other way I can stop the audio/video?? Ya I heard someone here said the same thing a long time ago. But not sure if it can work. Maybe you can find an alternative way to pause a video. What's the best video downloader for win7? Is there any video downloader for windows? I dont really like the media player and I hate the media url. This person was having a problem and it worked but then the PC broke and I now need to go to school and boot it up. So I am on my phone so no go but I am pretty good with computers and computers are my thing so I would like to help.
